

URJ (Union for Reform Judaism)
Annual Unity Shabbat Service
Friday Evening, March 29th, 7:30 pm
Temple Chayai Shalom, 239 Depot Street, Easton

An evening of uplifting melodies and thought-provoking ideas with Rabbis, Cantors, Soloists, and congregants from Congregation Sha'aray Shalom in Hingham, Temple Beth David of the South Shore in Canton, Temple Beth David in Westwood, Temple Chayai Shalom in Easton, and Temple Sinai in Sharon.

Guest speaker, Dr. Michael Meyer, will be speaking about

"The Sailboat of Reform Judaism"

Currently the Adolph S. Ochs Professor of Jewish History Emeritus, Michael Meyer has taught modern Jewish history at the Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati for more than fifty years. Three of his books won the coveted National Jewish book award. His best-known book, published by Oxford University Press in 1988 and still in print, is entitled: Response to Modernity: A History of the Reform Movement in Judaism. In 1996, he won the National Foundation for Jewish Culture's Scholarship Award in Historical Studies for major influence on colleagues and students in his field. In 2001, he received an honorary Doctor of Hebrew Letters degree from the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. In 2008, Jewish historians from the United States, Israel, and Europe honored him with a jubilee volume entitled Mediating Modernity: Challenges and Trends in the Jewish Encounter with the Modern World.
