

Ya'aloz Sadai, Psalm 96 יַעֲלֹז שְׂדֵי

Siddur Sim Shalom, page 16

יַעֲלֹז שְׂדֵי וְכָל אֲשֶׁר בּוֹ,
אֲז יִרְנְנוּ כָּל עֵצֵי יַעַר.

Let the fields and all that is in them be happy,
and then the trees of the forest will burst in song.

BIG Idea - everything is happy!

Ya'aloz Sadai, (Psalm 96 verse 12) says:

“Let the fields and all that is in them be happy, and then the trees of the forest will burst in song!”

The psalm talks about a future day in which peace will reign and the entire world with everything in it – animals, objects and trees, will be happy and singing!

Key words:

כָּל - everything

יִרְנְנוּ - will sing

עֵצֵי יַעַר – trees of the forest

Did you know?

The vowel "Kamatz" usually sounds like the "Ah" in "father".

However, sometimes it sounds different - like the "Oh" sound in "for". When it does, it is called a Kamatz katan.

How can you tell when to sound it as an "Oh"?

In our prayer text we mark it as a larger version of the vowel.

Examples:

אָז pronounce like Ahz

כָּל pronounce like Kohl

Look for it in future prayer text!
