BIG Idea - Peace for You

Shalom Aleichem! Is the Hebrew greeting used when two people meet, and it is also the name of the song that begins the Shabbat meal on Friday night.

ישַלוֹם עֵלֵיכֵם - "Shalom Aleichem" – means "may peace be upon you".

When singing this song, we are asking God's angels to bless our home with peace. We ask that there should be no conflict between friends or family, especially on Shabbat.

When we say "Shalom Aleichem" we are asking for more than just blessings, we are asking for the feeling that our world is complete on Shabbat.

During the week we have work, conflicts to resolve and some hard days, but on Shabbat we are in harmony: family, love and joy of life...

Key Words:

שַׁלוֹם - "Shalom" means "Hello", "Goodbye"... and "peace".

בּילֹנֹם - Shalom comes from the Hebrew word shalem, (בַּילֵבֶי ) which means "complete".

ヺ゚ヿ゚゚゚ヹ゚ – "blessed"

"the holy" ( הַ means "the", שַּלוֹשׁ means "holy") הַקְּדוֹשׁ

"king" or "ruler" – מֶּלֶלֶּךּ

Did you know?

means "angel"

Peace for you, messenger angels, angels of the Most High, of the Ruler of rulers, the Holy One, blessed be God.

Come in peace, angels of peace, angels of the Most High, of the Ruler of rulers, the Holy One, blessed be God.

Bless me with peace, angels of peace, angels of the Most High, of the Ruler of rulers, the Holy One, blessed be God.

May you depart in peace, angels of peace, angels of the Most High, of the Ruler of rulers, the Holy One, blessed be God.
